

Oregon Energy Healing Center

Relax

Recharge

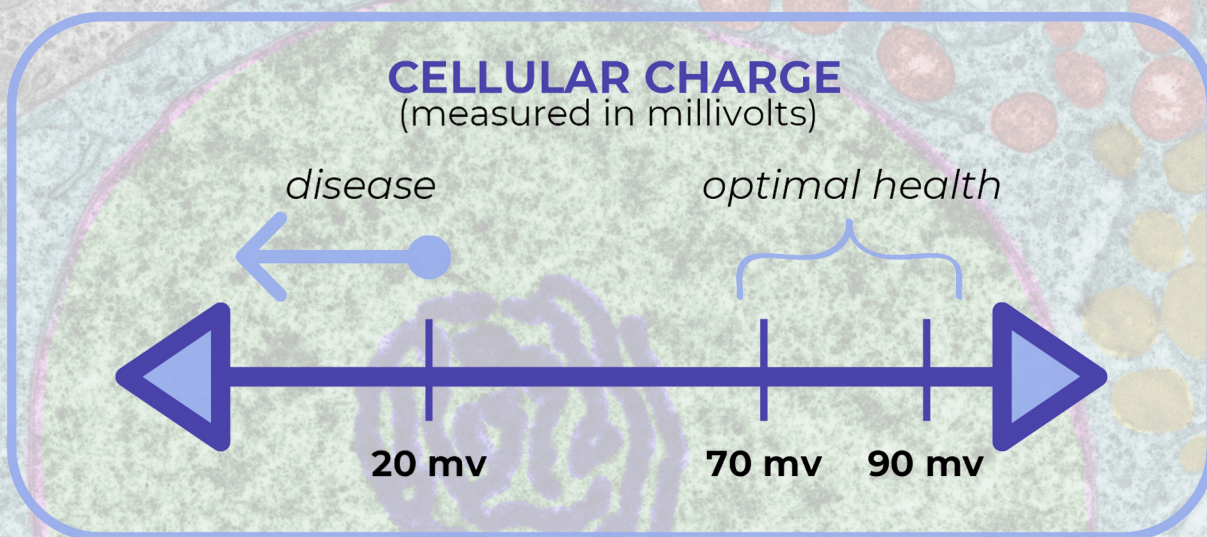

Regenerate

The Oregon Energy Healing Center is home to the only Energy Enhancement System in Southern Oregon. This revolutionary technology was developed over 20 years ago and uses custom installed computers that generate bio-active energy fields called Scalar Waves.

Exposure to these healing frequencies has many benefits including cellular regeneration, improved immune function, pain reduction, detoxification and elevated moods. Consistent exposure over time to these powerful healing frequencies delivers the best results.

Every Cell Has an Electrical Charge

Health starts within your cells. Optimal cellular charge facilitates healing; insufficient cellular charge leads to disease states.

One of the primary functions of the Energy Enhancement System (EES) is to help the mitochondria of our cells generate more energy. When our cells have sufficient energy, we can detoxify and regenerate more efficiently. Ultimately, the EES creates an optimal healing environment that supports the body to heal itself.

“The power that made the body, heals the body.”
